This non school-activity/publication is not sponsored or endorsed by the Richardson Independent School District

To maintain the development and competitiveness of the student athletes in the Pearce Baseball attendance zone, it is critical for us to provide summer baseball camps. This will enable our baseball players to develop the fundamental baseball skills required to play at the 6A level.

These baseball camps will provide the following:

- Offensive fundamental skills including proper hitting mechanics
- Analysis and correction of each players swing
- Pitching mechanics and development
- Individual position defensive fundamentals
- Proper throwing mechanics
- Baserunning philosophy
- Team strategy and philosophy
- Building confidence in each player
- A great time!
- Continuity and development of the Pearce baseball program

Location: Pearce High School - Mustang Field

Registration: Registration will be online or by mail and will take place the first day of camp. These spots will fill up fast, so please rsvp as early as possible! Return the back signed with payment to Coach Trent Starnes or register through the portal.

Fees: $110 - Refer to the back in regards to dates and times per grade level (2018- 2019 school year).

Equipment needed: Baseball glove, bat, spikes, hat, protective equipment, and jug of water. Water will also be provided by the coaching staff!
